page 23 that the "Far Eastern Survey," a publication of the American Institute of Pacific Relations, Inc., for October, 1953, contained an article entitled "New Central Banking Legislation-Indonesia" by Reed J. Irvine. Irvine was described as an economist with the Division of International Finance, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. (100-64700, Ser. 1180)

Refer to a report by the New York Office dated May 25, 1953, concerning the IPR. In referenced report, it is revealed that the "Far Eastern Survey," in 1952, put out two publication issues on Japanese relations containing articles by several individuals among whom was Reed J. Irvine. (100-64700, ser. 1146)

As this is a sensitive security form it is imperative that the Buded be met.

Rebulet to Washington Field requesting Preliminary Inquiry to determine if sufficient information exists to warrant a FFI.

The Preliminary Inquiry in this case developed no information to indicate Employee had any subversive tendencies or was in any way disloyal to this country while residing in the Salt Lake City Division. Nothing unfavorable was developed regarding his relatives.

[redacted] Registrar's Office, University of Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah, made available Employee's record which reflected he attended the University of Utah from 1938 to 1942, he received a Bachelor of Arts Degree with a major in Philosophy on June 9, 1942, and also received a High School Teaching Certificate. He graduated with high honors and was a member of Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic societies. His record showed he was born September 29, 1922, at Salt Lake City, Utah, and that he was a graduate of West High School in Salt Lake City. His address was given as 160 South 10th East, Salt Lake City.

[redacted] Salt Lake City, [redacted] of the Department of Philosophy of the University of Utah and now retired, advised he was closely associated with Employee for about three or four years during which time Employee was studying for a Degree in Philosophy. He said that during Employee's final year at the University he received a fellowship and assisted in the teaching and other work in the department. He stated Employee was a brilliant student, he had a keen, analytical mind, and was a person who was quick to challenge any statement made by one of his teachers if he disagreed with it. He recalled many instances when he had discussions with Employee, but at no time did Employee make any statements or in any way indicate he was subversively inclined, and neither did he make any statements against our institutions. [redacted] stated he had had very little contact with Employee since 1942, but because of his previous knowledge he felt Employee would still be a loyal American citizen.

RECORDED - 101 140-4152-4
INDEXED - 101

[redacted] Department of Philosophy, University of Utah, advised he had been acquainted with Employee since about 1938; he had had him in several of his classes, and since Employee's graduation he had been very friendly with him and had maintained contact with him through correspondence and periodic visits. He said Employee was thoroughly loyal to this country, as were the members of his immediate family. He pointed out Employee's mother had been active in civic affairs and she enjoyed an excellent reputation. He further added [redacted] was also a student of his and he considered him thoroughly reliable and a good American.

[redacted] member of the faculty of the College of Education, University of Utah, advised Employee in the selection of his courses in obtaining his High School Teaching Certificate, and had close contact with him while he was at the University. He had nothing but favorable information to report regarding Employee. He considered him to be thoroughly loyal to this country.

[redacted] Newspaper Agency Corporation, Tribune Building, Salt Lake City, verified Employee's employment with the Tribune-Telegram Newspaper as a newsboy from April 1, 1940, to December 1, 1941. He said there was no one around now who would recall Employee, but he made available the supervisor's report on Employee reflecting his services were very satisfactory and he was eligible for re-hire. It is noted the Tribune-Telegram and the Deseret News have consolidated recently and the Newspaper Agency Corporation handles the business for this consolidated company.

[redacted] of the Department of Buildings and Grounds, Salt Lake Board of Education, 440 East 4th South, Salt Lake City, verified Employee's employment as a Laborer with that department during the month of July, 1941. He said Employee's services were satisfactory, and none of the foremen in that department recalled him.

The following neighbors furnished favorable information regarding [redacted] who resides at [redacted] Salt Lake City, and although they did not know Employee except by reputation, they had nothing derogatory to report regarding him:

Utah

[redacted]

All of the above persons are in Salt Lake City.

Reference [redacted] was not immediately available for interview.

b7C

The Bureau files reflect that previously investigations have been conducted by this Office

Salt Lake City Credit Bureau, made available records residing at Utah, is currently an also made available a report regarding residing at Utah.

at Salt Lake City.

There was no unfavorable information reflected regarding Employee or his mother in the files of the Salt Lake City Credit Bureau.

b7C

The following individuals advised the records of their respective agencies contained no information regarding Employee or members of his immediate family:

Utah State Bureau of Criminal Identification, Salt Lake City
Identification Division, Salt Lake County Sheriff's Office
Records Bureau, Salt Lake City Police Department

It was noted that during instant investigation some of the individuals interviewed advised they had been interviewed recently by a Civil Service Investigator concerning the Employee. Inquiry at the local office of the Civil Service Commission reflected that office had recently completed an investigation under Executive Order 10450 regarding Employee. The Investigator was not available and there was not a copy of the report at the Salt Lake City office. It was learned, however, that the deadline for the Civil Service Commission investigation was May 26, 1954, and there was no indication in referenced Bureau letter that instant matter was a referral from the Civil Service Commission.

This information is being brought to the Bureau's attention for appropriate action in order to avoid duplications of this type in the future.

SECURITY OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

San Francisco, California
May 25, 1954

III RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION:

AT BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA:

[redacted] Registrar's Office, University of California, made her records available which reflected that IRVINE entered as a graduate student, majoring in Philosophy in October, 1942, and withdrew from the school December 7, 1942, to enter military service. He was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, 9/29/22, and had received an AB Degree in June, 1942 from the University of Utah.

b7C

[redacted] advised that the teachers who taught IRVINE during the short period he was at the school are not with the school at the present time.

[redacted] Graduate Division, University of California, advised that IRVINE, prior to entering the University of California, had lived at 160 10th Street East, Salt Lake City, Utah, had graduated from West Salt Lake High School, Salt Lake City, Utah. IRVINE had indicated in applying for admission to the Graduate School, that he desired to work for an MA Degree in Philosophy, and that his education was being self-financed.

[redacted] advised that IRVINE left the University of California December 7, 1942 to enter military service and she stated that the Professors who taught his classes commented favorably concerning his work during the short period that he was at the school.

[redacted] Alumni Records, University of California, advised that an IRVINE, while a student at the University of California, resided at 2406 Dana Street, Berkeley.

b7C

[redacted] University of California, advised that he did not know IRVINE, and had no information concerning him.

[redacted] advised

DECLASSIFIED BY 60309/AUC/TAM/DCG/YMW
ON 09-20-2005

that [redacted] rooming house at that address called the Gaisford House, but that she was not there in 1942. She said that she never had heard of IRVINE as a resident there, and that there was no one living there or in the neighborhood who would know him inasmuch as it was a transient neighborhood of rooming houses occupied by University students who did not reside there very long. b7C

[redacted] advised that [redacted] and that she recalled IRVINE as having been a roomer [redacted] for a period from about September, 1942 until December, 1942. She said that he was a very fine young man who came of a good family and, in her opinion, was of good character and loyal.

She said that he was a clean living person who studied very hard and was interested in church work. She said he had few visitors because he spent most of his time studying. She stated that she had no reason to doubt the loyalty and character of his associates, and on the basis of her short acquaintance, she felt that she could recommend him as a trustworthy person.

She said that she knew of no one living in the Berkeley area who knew IRVINE, while he resided in Berkeley.

The Credit records of the Credit Bureau of the Greater East Bay, Oakland, and the Criminal records of the Berkeley Police Department contained no information concerning IRVINE.

Returned herewith is your copy of the captioned individual's security form.

According to available information, page 23 of "Far Eastern Survey," a publication of the American Institute of Pacific Relations, Inc., in its October, 1953, issue included an article entitled "New Central Banking Legislation-Indonesia" by Reed J. Irvine. The article described Irvine as an economist with the Division of International Finance, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. In 1952, "Far Eastern Survey" published articles on Japanese relations, including several such articles by Reed J. Irvine. (100-64700-1180 and 1146)

The American Council, Institute of Pacific Relations, was cited as a Communist front by the California Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 1948.

In view of the foregoing, inquiries were conducted pursuant to Executive Order 10450. Results of some of those inquiries are set out in the attached reports. You will note that the reports do not represent the results of a full field investigation and should not be construed as such. The reports are described as follows:

Report of Special Agent [redacted] b7C dated June 1, 1954, at Seattle, Washington.

Report of Special Agent [redacted] dated May 25, 1954, at San Francisco, California.

Report of Special Agent Kenneth J. Bridenstine, dated May 21, 1954, at Denver, Colorado.

In addition, inquiries were also conducted at Salt Lake City, Utah, and Washington, D. C., including contacts at the University of Utah with faculty members and past and present employers, neighbors, local law enforcement agencies, credit agencies, confidential informants familiar with some phases of Communist Party and related activities and records of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Those inquiries revealed no derogatory data on the employee, and persons acquainted with Irvine and his family consider them to be of good character, reputation, associates and loyalty.

Your files reflect that you have just completed extensive investigation on the employee and that no derogatory information was developed during that investigation.

The central files of this Bureau contain no additional information of pertinence regarding the employee.

The foregoing information, which is not the result of a full field investigation by the FBI, is being furnished to you for your consideration. No further action is contemplated in this matter by this Bureau unless specifically requested. This information should not be disseminated to any unauthorized persons or agencies and this Bureau makes no recommendation regarding clearance or disapproval of the employee.

[redacted] Registrar's Office, made available the applicant's scholastic record which indicated he attended graduate school for the period noted above.

This record reflected that IRVINE took four courses: Economics, anthropology, Sociology and a Japanese language course.

According to a transcript sent the University from the University of Utah at Salt Lake, IRVINE attended the latter institution from 1938 to 1942 and it was also noted that he attended the Japanese Language School while he was a naval officer at the University of Colorado from December 1942 to August 1943.

On an application for admittance to the University of Washington dated November 19, 1948, the employee stated he was living at 160 10th East, Salt Lake City and his place anddate of birth was noted as September 22, 1922 at Salt Lake City.

The employee listed his father as WILLIAM J. IRVINE and his mother as EDNA M. IRVINE, both of the same Salt Lake City address.

A thorough review of the file indicated no unfavorable information pertaining to the employee and [redacted] stated that it would be impractical to locate any professor or student who might recall IRVINE because he had pursued but four courses and these were in different fields of study.

at [redacted] stated that she recalls the employee and his wife quite well. She declared that IRVINE had attended the University of Washington for a short term and that when he concluded this schooling had moved to a city unknown to her.

[redacted] added that the employee and his wife seemed to be reputable, loyal Americans who caused no trouble while they lived in [redacted] apartments. She went on to say that she did not know any of the associates of the IRVINEs nor did she ever notice any in their apartment. She concluded by relating that there was no other person who might recall the employee because of the turnover in the apartment house.

CREDIT AND CRIMINAL

Files of the Seattle Credit Bureau, Seattle Police Department and King County Sheriff's Office failed to reveal any record identifiable with the employee or his wife.

Reliable confidential informants, acquainted with Communist Party activities in Seattle and the Seattle area declared that the employee is unknown to them.
